ESSEX COUNTY EXECUTIVE DIVINCENZO RECOGNIZES EMPLOYEES DURING COUNTY'S JULY TEAMWORK AWARD PROGRAM

Newark, NJ – Essex County Executive Joseph N. DiVincenzo, Jr. presented four County employees with July Teamwork Awards during the monthly teamwork program. The following employees were commended for their dedication and commitment to serving the public.

Diane H. Reddick began working for the County's Office of Data Processing in 1976, and is now the Assistant County Tax Administrator at the Essex County Board of Taxation. She also serves as the office's Personnel Liaison. Reddick has become very knowledgeable of office policies and tax procedures and is often a mentor to other employees. Her willingness to help her co-workers and the residents of Essex County epitomizes "teamwork." Diane sets a great example for her co-workers and inspires each of them to strive for excellence.

Theresa Notare began her career with Essex County in 1989 as Clerk Typist working in the County Executive's Office. She transferred to the Office of County Counsel, Division of Labor & Employment in 2003. As Principal Clerk Typist, Theresa is responsible for filing legal pleadings, briefs and supportive documents with the Courts and scheduling depositions and employment hearings. In addition, she is the office's billing person for professional and non-professional services. Theresa demonstrates her wealth of knowledge and professionalism on a daily basis and completes all tasks promptly and accurately.

Toni Rodriguez has been a Purchasing Assistant with the Department of Economic Development, Training & Employment, Division of Housing & Community Development for 5 years and managed the office's relocation to the Kip's Castle Carriage House from their location at 50 South Clinton Street. She handled all logistical aspects of the move, from the hiring of a moving company to the installation of the new phone system. Her leadership and expertise resulted in a smooth transition to the new facility.

Philomena Salgado transferred from Data Processing to become a Secretarial Assistant with the Board of Taxation in 1976. Her responsibilities include budget preparation, purchasing and managing the trust account. Philomena is a dedicated County employee, committed to putting Essex County first, providing excellent service to the residents of Essex County. She has acquired a wealth of knowledge over the years, which makes her an asset to the Board of Taxation.
